School Board Policies
Rules and Regulations

POLICY 6418 CHARACTER EDUCATION

All staff members are expected to exemplify the Dists Lifelong Learning Stadards and Benchmarks and to incorporate them into the instructional programs in the character traits are recognized as being a part of our heritage and as being necessary for the full lopement of our students and our community.

LEGAL REF.: Wisconsin Statutes

Section 118.01(2) [Instructional program gozelsuirements, including those related to lifelong learning and citizenship)

CROSS REF.: 6100, District Vision

6110, Instructional Program Mission and Beliefs Lifelong Learning Standards and Benchmarks

ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS: None

AFFIRMED: September 24, 1991

REVISED: January 29, 2002

Benchmarks Li Knowledgeable Person fel on Applies Understands and is able to use knowledge as stated in the content Knowledge standards for each subject g Applies Reasoning Selects and uses appropriate reasoningnd strategies for intended purpose Thinker Makes Decisions Utilizes a decision-making proces to make appropriate choices ea Solves Problems Solves problems using relevant resources rn Accesses in Information Accesses information using a variety of techniques and resources g Evaluates Communicator Accuracy Evaluates the accuracy and usefulness of information St Uses Information Assembles and synthesizes information for a given purpose an Communicates da Clearly Expresses ideas clearly in accordance with audience and purpose rd Sets and Achieves Sets personally meaningfl life goals and develops a plan to achieve these Goals goals in the pursuit of excellence S Directs Change Demonstrates ability to adapt, manage, and direct change Demonstrates Responsibility Demonstrates personalesponsibility for learning Self-Directed Evaluates Self Evaluates how academic and personal development impact learning Sustains Effort Exerts a high level of efforts and perseveres to complete a task Seeks New Ideas Seeks new knowledge and tries new ideas Creates quality products or performances that reflect skill, craftsmanship Creates Quality and originality in achieving their intended purpose Appreciates Recognizes and responds to excellence and can make and defend Excellence judgments about the merits of a product or performance Uses Appropriate Selects and applies appropriate tools in creating a quality product or Tools performance Understands how family, school, work, and community systems are Connects Family, interdependent and influence attitude, aspirations, opportunities, and School and Work behaviors Utilizes interpersonal skills to work cooperatively in diverse groups to Works in Groups accomplish common goals

Uses nonviolent conflict maagement skills effectively perspectives contribute to society

Accommodates individual differences and considers how diverse

Manages Conflict

Respects Diversity

AFFIRMED: September 24, 1991